THE CANNING INDUSTRY.

An Experienced Man Shows the Rare Opportunity for Return of Investment.

S. S. Lian in Houston Post.

The writer was for eight years actively engaged in the practical work of canning, has built, fitted up and operated canning factories throughout five different States, and ought to be able to tell your readers something about the benefits growing out of the business.

First, let us take a hasty look backward and note the rise and progress of this young giant—and, mark you, the business has never been built up by any high protective tariff, as many of our "infant industries" have, but has simply grown to its present enormous proportions from its own intrinsic merit and the demands of our modern civilization, which requires a more varied food supply.

Those of your readers whose memories date back fifty years will agree with me when I say that there was no such thing as canned goods upon the market then; in fact, the giant strides of the industry have mostly been made within the last two decades, until now there is not a grocery in any civilized country upon the face of the earth but what has a large proportion of its stock in trade in the shape of canned goods.

The first successful attempt at canning tomatoes was made in 1848 in the vicinity of Baltimore and of course attracted but little attention and made but slow progress for many years.

In 1863 Isaac Winslow took out his first patent for preserving green corn in hermetically sealed cans but the troublous times through which this Nation was then passing precluded the possibility of any rapid development of a new industry, and it was many years after the close of the civil war before the products of the canning factory came into general use or began to attract the attention of statisticians. According to the census report of 1890 there were over 15,000 factories scattered over the United States and Territories canning almost every conceivable kind of food product, including fish and oysters, and giving employment either directly or indirectly to more than 2,000,000 people, they were paying out annually for the raw material over $4,000,000 and their finished product, as it passed out to the markets of the world, was valued at over $50,000,000. What the last census will show I do not know, but undoubtedly the business has more than doubled in the last ten years and it is safe to say that the industry is as yet in its infancy. Now permit me to give your readers some idea of the direct benefit to a community growing out of the business. I will first make this broad assertion, without fear of successful contradiction, that there is no other manufacturing enterprise that, for the same amount of capital invested, will benefit as many people in the various walks of life as a well-equipped, properly-managed canning factory.

First, it stimulates the "man with the hoe" to plant five acres when he now plants but one or two, because it insures him a home market for all his surplus when it no longer pays him to ship it to other markets. With a canning factory in our midst all of this surplus can be utilized. This point is so apparent that it is unnecessary to enlarge upon it. Secondly, it gives direct employment to a great many deserving poor of what is known as the "ill-labor"—the very class to whom the most direct and most beneficial employment can be given.

Third, it stimulates the "man with the hoe" to plant five acres when he now plants but one or two, because it insures him a home market for all his surplus when it no longer pays him to ship it to other markets. With a canning factory in our midst all of this surplus can be utilized. This point is so apparent that it is unnecessary to enlarge upon it. Secondly, it gives direct employment to a great many deserving poor of what is known as the "ill-labor"—the very class to whom the most direct and most beneficial employment can be given.

ly poor but worthy women and girls. The work of preparing the raw material ready for the cans, such as skinning tomatoes, peeling fruit, stringing beans, dressing strawberries, etc., is done by this class of labor. It is piece work and a woman can earn 75c to $1 per day, and women and girls will always do such work neater and quicker than a man. Another thing, money paid out to this class of our citizens goes right into circulation again. It goes to pay rent, to buy dry goods, groceries, shoes, etc. The "man with the hoe" is enabled to hire more help. The owner of the plant receives a handsome interest on his investment and when the finished product goes out to the markets of the world it brings new money in to the community and all classes are thereby benefitted.

Now, I would like to ask if any one can give a good reason why we should send our money to Baltimore for our supply of tomatoes, or to California for our pears, or to New England, where their soil is too poor to hold up a fence post, for canned corn? Or to New Jersey or Michigan for peaches, when all these articles and many others can be grown in Texas as cheaply and in as great profusion as any place upon this mundane sphere. As well might the English engage in shipping coals to Newcastle as for Texans to go outside of their own State for anything that ministers to the wants or happiness of either man or beast.

There is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood will lead on to wealth and prosperity, or words to that effect, and this is just as true of cities as it is of individuals.

This is a strenuous age—an age of steam and electricity. Opportunities for rapid advancement rarely present themselves more than once either to individuals or cities. Will the capitalists and the progressive citizens of Houston prove equal to the occasion? If so in ten or fifteen years from now we should see a city of 200,000 people here, with mighty ships at our docks loading with canned goods, as well as with cotton with all manner of manufactured articles, as well as with grain and sailing out through an isthmian canal, to all the markets of the Orient. We have a balmy climate millions of acres of as fertile soil as the sun shines upon; we have cheap fuel at our doors for manufactories, and nothing but Rip Van Winkle slumber can prevent Houston from becoming the great manufacturing and commercial emporium of the Southwest.

In conclusion I wish to say that if any interested party wishes to investigate the canning business I will take pleasure in giving them a great deal of information.

ATTEMPT TO RELEASE.

Howard's Friends Fail in an Effort to Take Him from the Sheriff.

Corbin, Ky., Dec. 9.—Friends of Barry Howard, the mountain feud leader, made an attempt to rescue him as he was being taken to Frankfort to answer an indictment charging him with complicity in the murder of William Goebel, for which he had been arrested by Sheriff Broughton and his deputy, who got the drop on Howard and his body-guard after luring them into Pineville.

As soon as Howard was arrested, his friends, who had protected him for nearly two years, swore he should never be taken to Frankfort. A guard of 25 armed men was maintained over the prisoner while here and ten men accompanied Sheriff Broughton and the prisoner to Frankfort.

When the train reached Pineville Sheriff Broughton and his posse boarded it with the prisoner and were given one of the coaches which was locked at both ends. At the same time, three men, friends of Howard, boarded the engine. They covered the train with pistols and demanded that the train be stopped.

In a Dance at 100 Years.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Wilhelmina Eichenberg, living at the German old people's home at Altenheim, danced and sung on the morning of her 100th birthday. None of the eighty-six old people at the home was as happy as she. She placed her arm about the waist of Miss Schmitthusen, the matron, and led her a two-step. Her first words when she awoke were: "I am so happy." Mrs. Eichenberg was born in Lauenstein, Hanover, Germany, Dec. 7, 1801. Her maiden name was Linnemann. In 1825 she was married to Conrad Eichenberg, a miner.

SERMON BY BISHOP JOYCE.

Owing to the severity of the weather only a small audience assembled at the Methodist church Sunday night, but those who were present were amply repaid for braving the elements by the masterly effort of Bishop I. W. Joyce of Minneapolis, who filled the pulpit by invitation of the pastor, Rev. E. L. Shettles. Bishop Joyce is a venerable churchman of great learning who has traveled in all parts of the world, and he gave his hearers some wholesome Christian philosophy. The bishop took the position that man is no stronger than his weakest point, and no better than the thing he loves the most. The things which we love and with which we surround ourselves form our habits and direct the course of our lives. If they be good and pure and holy, so shall our lives become; if they be evil, so will our lives be. The speaker declared that creed is no longer anything but a definition and the only question now is, are you for Christ or against him?

KELLEY-VAN PELT.

Mr. Jerome Kelley of Houston and Miss Annie Van Pelt of this city were married Sunday afternoon by Rev. E. L. Shettles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mike. The attendants were a sister of the bride, from Navasota, and a friend of the groom who accompanied him from Houston, their future home. Mr. Kelley and his father have charge of the books for the Houston Drug Company, and the young man is favorably spoken of by those who know him. Miss Van Pelt has made her home in Bryan for several months, and has made friends of all who have met her. She is an expert stenographer and bookkeeper and has been in the employ of Moore & Dyer. The best wishes of all follow Mr. and Mrs. Kelley.

SERMON BY BISHOP JOYCE.

Owing to the severity of the weather only a small audience assembled at the Methodist church Sunday night, but those who were present were amply repaid for braving the elements by the masterly effort of Bishop I. W. Joyce of Minneapolis, who filled the pulpit by invitation of the pastor, Rev. E. L. Shettles. Bishop Joyce is a venerable churchman of great learning who has traveled in all parts of the world, and he gave his hearers some wholesome Christian philosophy. The bishop took the position that man is no stronger than his weakest point, and no better than the thing he loves the most. The things which we love and with which we surround ourselves form our habits and direct the course of our lives. If they be good and pure and holy, so shall our lives become; if they be evil, so will our lives be. The speaker declared that creed is no longer anything but a definition and the only question now is, are you for Christ or against him?

KELLEY-VAN PELT.

Mr. Jerome Kelley of Houston and Miss Annie Van Pelt of this city were married Sunday afternoon by Rev. E. L. Shettles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mike. The attendants were a sister of the bride, from Navasota, and a friend of the groom who accompanied him from Houston, their future home. Mr. Kelley and his father have charge of the books for the Houston Drug Company, and the young man is favorably spoken of by those who know him. Miss Van Pelt has made her home in Bryan for several months, and has made friends of all who have met her. She is an expert stenographer and bookkeeper and has been in the employ of Moore & Dyer. The best wishes of all follow Mr. and Mrs. Kelley.

NOVTS A DAY AND A NIGHT

GRAND OPERA HOUSE, DECEMBER 12th.

WRECKED AND BURNED.

One Negro Woman Killed and Twenty Persons Injured at Macon.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 9.—A Central of Georgia passenger train en route from Savannah to Atlanta, was wrecked as it entered Macon Sunday. One person was killed and 20 were injured. The train had just crossed the river, when it jumped a switch on top of a high embankment, the engine and tender parting from the train. There were 100 passengers on board and it seems a miracle that no one was hurt.

The baggage and express were thrown down the embankment and burned. The second class coach was thrown upon its side and also burned. The first class passenger car fell over the embankment and the Atlanta sleeper, filled with passengers, caught fire and was also destroyed. Two sleepers were saved.

The person killed was Julia Boynton, a negress of Columbus, Ga.

The mail was saved but in a damaged condition.

Martinelli's Probable Successor.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The reported assignment of Monsignor Scalabrini of Placenza, Italy, as the successor of Cardinal Martinelli, the papal delegate in this country, is regarded as very improbable. Monsignor Scalabrini is regarded as one of the ablest ecclesiastics of the church in Italy.

Two Lives Lost.

London, Dec. 9.—The Queen's hotel at South Sea burned down Sunday. Forty of the guests escaped in their night clothes. Two chambermaids were suffocated and several firemen and others were injured. The Queen's hotel was a fashionable resort.

Killed by a Train.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 9.—Sherry W. Marshall, receiving teller of the National Bank of Commerce for several years, was struck by a Frisco passenger train from which he had just alighted at Lacygne, Kan., Saturday night and died of his injuries. Mr. Marshall was one of a party of Kansas City business men who had gone on a hunting trip.

Gold to Buy Supplies.

Manila, Dec. 9.—The United States Philippine commission has passed an act authorizing the insular purchasing agent to draw money in gold for the payment of supplies purchased, as the merchants refuse to sell goods for Mexican silver.

Thirty-Nine Prisoners Escape.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 9.—Thirty-nine prisoners, serving sentences for minor crimes, escaped from the city jail between 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday morning by digging through a sixteen inch brick wall with pocket knives. Five were recaptured.

American Federation of Labor.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 9.—The committee on resolutions engaged the attention of the American Federation of Labor at this morning's session. The committee reported a number of resolutions and delegates immediately proceeded to consider them. The first resolution considered was one pledging the assistance of the Federation to the Journeymen Tailors' Union of America in contests for free shops. The resolution was adopted.

First Snow Storm in Texas.

St. Louis, Dec. 9.—Telegrams from Texas report the first real snow storm of the season prevailed over northern and northwestern Texas Sunday, accompanied by cold weather. Ranchmen fear heavy loss of live stock in the lower and central Panhandle sections where the cattle are thin, and feed and water scarce.

Lawyer Found Dead.

New York, Dec. 9.—John W. Allen, at one time a wealthy and successful real estate lawyer in this city, was found dead in the Progressing House near the Bowery. The cause of death is given as the cause.

GIFT FROM CARNEGIE

Washington, Dec. 9.—Announcement of Carnegie is to give $10,000,000 to the cause of university extension in the United States. Announcement of this great gift to education will be made at the white house tomorrow. Mr. Carnegie was in Washington a few days ago and took luncheon with President Roosevelt and details of the plan were fully discussed.

Mr. Carnegie has thought best to create a national board to handle this munificent benefaction. President Roosevelt probably will name such a board for Mr. Carnegie, or at least set in motion the machinery which shall lead to a national organization.

According to the plans prepared by Mr. Carnegie and his advisers, the national organization is to have its headquarters in Washington, but its operations are to extend throughout the United States, the work to be carried on in co-operation with universities everywhere.

SPEECH BY COCKRAN

Although a Small Admission Was Charged There Was Not Standing Room—Money Raised for Women and Children.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Program of protest against British methods in the South African war was carried out before an immense audience in the Auditorium Theatre here Sunday night. Following an eloquent address by W. Bourke Cockran, and earnest speeches by others, resolutions for the appointment of a committee to bring the sentiments of the meeting before the president were adopted.

Although an admission was charged, the funds being intended to aid the Boers and especially their women and children, standing room was at a premium and many were unable to gain admittance.

The program opened with the song, "The True Heart," sung by 19 German singing societies of Chicago. Dr. Hiram Thomas, head of the People's church, followed with a prayer for the women and children in South African prison camps. Then followed short addresses by Judge Theo Brentano and the Judge Murray Tuley, chairman of the Chicago branch of the Transvaal league under the auspices where the meeting was held.

There were 500 people on the stage when Mr. Cockran the orator of the evening, arose and bowed in recognition of the tumult of applause which greeted him. He spoke at length and time and again was compelled to stop until applause ceased.

The meeting closed with a remarkable demonstration. Following a speech by Bishop Spaulding of Peoria, Ill., the great audience roared its approval of the Boer cause, the cheering being long and continued and then contributions were asked for the relief of the stricken women and children in the South African camps. The first response was a check for $500 sent up by a man who requested that his name be withheld. Then followed checks for $100, the contributors of this amount being numerous.

When smaller sums were asked for, money came freely from all parts of the great auditorium. The total amount raised was something over $5500.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, that we as American citizens, believing that the wanton destruction of property of non-combatants by British military authorities in South Africa (without precedent in modern times, save by English officers in the war of the American revolution) is a source of needless suffering to the people of the South African republics and without advantage to the military operations of the British army, and that the slaughter of the helpless and innocent, caused by English prison pens, is a causeless outrage upon the humanity of the civilized world which amply justifies concentrated remonstrance by American and European states; and believing that the rights and obligations of common humanity are not determined by geographical or political limitations; and regarding the treaty of 1871 as made to be observed by England as well as by America, do most solemnly remonstrate and protest against the acts of the English government.

"Resolved, that we, and each of us, do hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost powers to make this, our protest, known to our several representatives in the American congress, and to cause a copy of these resolutions to be brought to the attention of the president of the United States with the most respectful but urgent petition that the treaty of Washington of May 8, 1871, be strictly enforced, and that the use of American ports and waters be henceforth denied to vessels operating under British charters for the augmentation of supplies of the United States will employ every possible means to bring to an end the horrors of concentration camps and a war fare which, by its unexampled ferocity and enormous cost of life and treasure has astounded the civilized world.

"Resolved, that the chairman be authorized to appoint a committee of citizens of Chicago to call the attention of the president to these resolutions and inform him of the sentiment of the citizens of Chicago, and that of the citizens of Chicago, and that such committee shall have power to add to its number citizens of other portions of the United States."

A resolution was also adopted commending Governor Yates of Illinois for issuing a proclamation calling for assistance for the occupants of concentration camps in South Africa.

Mint Director's Report.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The report of Geo. E. Roberts, director of the mint for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, shows the coinage amounted to 176,999,132 pieces of the value of $136,340,781. Of this $99,065,715 was in gold, $24,298,850 in silver dollars, $10,963,648 in fractional silver and $2,009,568 in minor coins. There also were coined at the Philadelphia mint 225,000 gold pieces of the value of $349,014 for the government of Costa Rica.

The estimated production of gold in the United States during the calendar year 1900 was of the value of $79,179,000, and notwithstanding the fact that this country led the world in production, its imports exceeded its exports by $12,866,010. The production of North America, practically all of which comes to the United States, was $116,051,500.

The world's coinage of gold in the calendar year 1900 was $54,936,497 and of silver $177,011,902.

The industry consumption of gold in the United States during the calendar year 1900 is estimated at $16,367,500, and of the world approximately $75,000,000. The stock of subsidiary coin in the country is limited by law to $100,000,000 and on Nov. 1, 1901, the existing stock was $90,313,512.

It is suggested that the limit of the country's stock of subsidiary coin be raised to at least $120,000,000. No good reason is apparent, says the report, why the coinage of dollar pieces should not be allowed to cease and all of the silver on hand be used in subsidiary coinage.

Negro Deserter Killed by Native.

Manila, Dec. 9.—Native scouts from Bengabon, province of Nueva Ecija, have killed the American negro, David Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth (colored) infantry, who, for more than two years, has been leading Filipinos against the American troops. The native scouts decapitated their prisoner.

A military commission sentenced the Filipino general, Isidore Torres, to be hanged after finding him guilty of ordering the assassination of Corporal Fieldner of the Twelfth infantry of Malolos, province of Bulacan, last October.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must digest or your food is wasted. You must prepare for their appearance or prepare their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Wilson-Jenkins Drug Co.'s store. Get Green's Special Almacanac.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part.
Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You

GIFT FROM CARNEGIE

It is to Donate $10,000,000
of University Extension Washington, Dec. 9.—ADMINISTRATOR negies is to give $10,000,000 to cause of university extension in the United States. Announcement of this great gift to education will be made at the white house tomorrow. Mr.
Carnegie was in Washington a few days ago and took luncheon with President Roosevelt and details of the plan were fully discussed.

Mr. Carnegie has thought best to create a national board to handle this munificent benefaction. President Roosevelt probably will name such a board for Mr. Carnegie, or at least set in motion the machinery which shall lead to a national organization.

According to the plans prepared by Mr. Carnegie and his advisers, the national organization is to have its headquarters in Washington, but its operations are to extend throughout the United States, the work to be carried on in co-operation with universities everywhere.

Western Jockey Club Meeting.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—What promises to be one of the most interesting of western jockey club meetings is in session here. The board of stewards met and elected officers and to arrange dates for next year, but because of a general adjustment of sides this a general adjustment of trouble and rivalries among "outlaw" tracks will take place. Local horsemen believe after the meeting western turf matters will pass under the exclusive control of this organization. It is announced that opposition to St. Louis tracks at the fair grounds and the Delmar, which heretofore have been a thorn in jockey club's side, will become strong allies.

Mint Director's Report.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The report of Geo. E. Roberts, director of the mint for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, shows the coinage amounted to 176, 999,132 pieces of the value of $136,340,
781. Of this $99,065,715 was in gold, $24,298,850 in silver dollars, $10,963,648 in fractional silver and $2,009,568 in minor coins. There also were coined at the Philadelphia mint 225,000 gold pieces of the value of $349,014 for the government of Costa Rica.

The estimated production of gold in the United States during the calendar year 1900 was of the value of $79,179, 000, and notwithstanding the fact that this country led the world in productions, its imports exceeded its exports by $12,866,010. The production of North America, practically all of which comes to the United States, was $116,051,500.

The world's coinage of gold in the calendar year 1900 was $54,936,497 and of silver $177,011,902.

The industry consumption of gold in the United States during the calendar year 1900 is estimated at $16,367,500, and of the world approximately $75, 000,000. The stock of subsidiary coin in the country is limited by law to $100,000,000 and on Nov. 1, 1901, the existing stock was $90,313,512.

It is suggested that the limit of the country's stock of subsidiary coin be raised to at least $120,000,000. No good reason is apparent, says the report, why the coinage of dollar pieces should not be allowed to cease and all of the silver on hand be used in subsidiary coinage.

Negro Deserter Killed by Native.

Manila, Dec. 9.—Native scouts from Bengabon, province of Neuva Ecija, have killed the American negro, David Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth (colored) infantry, who, for more than two years, has been leading Filipinos against the American troops.
The native scouts decapitated their prisoner.

A military commissions sentenced the Filipino general, Isidore Torres, to be hanged after finding him guilty of ordering the assassination of Corporal Fieldner of the Twelfth infantry of Malolos, province of Bulacan, last October.

SPEECH BY

Although a Small Admission Was Charged There Was Not Standing Room—Money Raised for Women and Children.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Program of protest against British methods in the South African was carried out before an immense audience in the Auditorium Theatre here Sunday night. Following an eloquent address by W. Bourke Cockran, and earnest speeches by others, resolutions for the appointment of a committee to bring the sentiments of the meeting before the president were adopted.

Although an admission was charged, the funds being intended to aid the Boers and especially their women and children, standing room was at a premium and many were unable to gain admittance.

The program opened with the song,
"The True Heart," sung by 19 German singing societies of Chicago. Dr.
Hiram Thomas, head of the People's church, followed with a prayer for the women and children in South African prison camps. Then followed short addresses by Judge Theo Brentano and Judge Murray Tuley, chairman of the Chicago branch of the Transvaal league under the auspices where the meeting was held.

There were 500 people on the stage when Mr. Cockran the orator of the evening, arose and bowed in recognition of the tumult of applause which greeted him. He spoke at length and time and again was compelled to stop until applause ceased.

The meeting closed with a remarkable demonstration. Following a speech by Bishop Spaulding of Peoria, Ill., the great audience roared its approval of the Boer cause, the cheering being long and continued and then contributions were asked for the relief of the stricken women and children in the South African camps. The first response was a check for $500 sent up by a man who requested that his name be withheld. Then followed checks for $100, the contributors of this amount being numerous.

When smaller sums were asked for, money came freely from all parts of the great auditorium. The total amount raised was something over $5500.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, that we as American citizens, believing that the wanton destruction of property of non-combatants by British military authorities in South Africa (without precedent in modern times, save by English officers in the war of the American revolution) is a source of needless suffering to the people of the South African republics and without advantage to the military operations of the British army, and that the slaughter of the helpless and innocent, caused by English prison pens, is a causeless outrage upon the humanity of the civilized world which humanity justifies concentrated remonstrance by American and European states; and believing that the rights and obligations of common humanity are not determined by geographical or political limitations; and regarding the treaty of 1871 as made to be observed by England as well as by America, do most solemnly remonstrate and protest against the acts of the English government.

"Resolved, that we, and each of us, do hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost powers to make this, our protest, known to our several representatives in the American congress, and to cause a copy of these resolutions to be brought to the attention of the president of the United States with petition that the treaty of Washington of May 8, 1871, be strictly enforced, and that the use of American ports and waters be henceforth denied to vessels operating under British charters for the augmentation of supplies of the war; and that the president of the United States will employ every possible means to bring to an end the horrors of concentration camps and a war fare which, by its unexampled ferocity and enormous cost of life and treasure has astounded the civilized world.

"Resolved, that the chairman be authorized to appoint a committee of citizens of Chicago to call the attention of the president to these resolutions and inform him of the sentiment of the citizens of Chicago, and that such committee shall have power to add to its number citizens of other portions of the United States."

A resolution was also adopted commending Governor Yates of Illinois for assisting a proclamation calling for assistance for the occupants of concentration camps in South Africa.
